7 Lecture - MGT101

Important Subjective

1. What are the basic books of accounts?

Answer: The basic books of accounts include the ledger, cash book, journal, and trial balance.

2. What is a ledger?

Answer: A ledger is a book that records all the transactions of a business in a systematic manner, arranged in different accounts.

3. What is a cash book?

Answer: A cash book is a book that records all cash and bank transactions of a business.

4. What is a journal?

Answer: A journal is a book that records all the financial transactions of a business in the order they occur.

5. What is a trial balance?

Answer: A trial balance is a statement that lists all the accounts in the ledger with their debit or credit balances to ensure that the total of all debits equals the total of all credits.

6. What is the purpose of a ledger?

Answer: The purpose of a ledger is to keep a record of all financial transactions of a business in a systematic manner to prepare accurate financial statements.

7. What is the importance of a cash book?

Answer: The cash book is important as it helps to track all cash and bank transactions, which enables a business to manage its cash flow effectively.

8. What is the importance of a journal?

Answer: The journal is important as it records all financial transactions in chronological order, which helps in identifying errors and making corrections.

9. What is the purpose of a trial balance?

Answer: The purpose of a trial balance is to ensure that all transactions have been recorded correctly and to identify any errors or discrepancies in the books of accounts.

10. Why are the basic books of accounts important?

Answer: The basic books of accounts are important as they help a business keep track of its financial transactions, which enables it to make informed decisions and prepare accurate financial statements.