

24 Lecture - MGT101

Important Subjective

- 1. What is the difference between debtors and creditors?
Answer: Debtors are customers who owe money to a business, while creditors are suppliers who are owed money by a business.
- 2. Why is it important for businesses to manage their debtors and creditors?
Answer: Proper management of debtors and creditors helps to maintain a healthy cash flow, which is essential for the financial stability of a business.
- 3. What are accruals in accounting?
Answer: Accruals are expenses that have been incurred but not yet paid.
- 4. How do accruals impact a business's financial statements?
Answer: Accruals increase expenses and liabilities on a business's financial statements.
- 5. What is a provision for bad debts?
Answer: A provision for bad debts is a reserve set aside to cover potential losses from customers who may default on their payments.
- 6. How does the provision for bad debts impact a business's financial statements?
Answer: The provision for bad debts decreases the value of accounts receivable on a business's balance sheet.
- 7. Why is it important for businesses to have a provision for bad debts?
Answer: A provision for bad debts helps businesses to account for potential losses from customers who may default on their payments, which helps to maintain the financial stability of the business.
- 8. How can businesses reduce the risk of bad debts?
Answer: Businesses can reduce the risk of bad debts by performing credit checks on customers, setting credit limits, and implementing a collection policy.
- 9. What is the journal entry to record a provision for bad debts?
Answer: Debit provision for bad debts, credit bad debts expense.
- 10. How can businesses improve their management of debtors and creditors?
Answer: Businesses can improve their management of debtors and creditors by implementing a credit control system, negotiating payment terms with suppliers, and regularly reviewing their accounts receivable and accounts payable.