23 Lecture - CS101

Important Subjective

1.	What is the first step in developing a presentation? Answer: Defining the objective.
2.	Why is it important to research and gather information for a presentation? Answer: To ensure that the information presented is relevant, accurate, and up-to-date.
3.	What should be included in the outline of a presentation? Answer: An introduction, body, and conclusion.
4.	Why is it important to keep the design of a presentation simple and consistent? Answer: To avoid distractions and keep the focus on the content.
5.	What types of multimedia elements can be added to a presentation? Answer: Images, videos, and audio clips.
6.	Why is it important to practice and rehearse a presentation? Answer: To feel more confident and comfortable delivering the presentation.
7.	What should be tested before delivering a presentation? Answer: The equipment.
8.	How can the audience be engaged during a presentation? Answer: By maintaining eye contact and allowing time for questions and feedback.
9.	What should be included in the conclusion of a presentation?

Answer: A summary of the key points and a call to action.

10. What is the ultimate goal of developing a presentation?Answer: To effectively communicate the intended message to the audience.