

12 Lecture - MGT111

Important Subjective

- 1. What is the main function of the legislative branch of government?
Answer: The main function of the legislative branch is to create laws.
- 2. What is the role of the executive branch in the government?
Answer: The executive branch is responsible for implementing and enforcing laws.
- 3. What is the role of the judiciary in the government?
Answer: The judiciary is responsible for interpreting laws and resolving disputes.
- 4. What is a federal system of government?
Answer: A federal system of government is where power is divided between a central government and state or provincial governments.
- 5. What is a parliamentary system of government?
Answer: A parliamentary system of government is where the executive branch is accountable to the legislature and is typically headed by a prime minister.
- 6. What is a presidential system of government?
Answer: A presidential system of government is where the executive branch is separate from the legislative branch and is headed by a directly elected president.
- 7. What is the role of the bureaucracy in the government?
Answer: The bureaucracy is responsible for implementing and administering government policies and programs.
- 8. What is the role of the media in the government?
Answer: The media serves as a watchdog, providing information and holding government officials accountable.
- 9. What is the role of interest groups in the government?
Answer: Interest groups represent specific interests and advocate for policies that benefit their members.
- 10. What is the importance of checks and balances in the government?
Answer: Checks and balances ensure that no one branch of government has too much power and that each branch is held accountable by the others.