

45 Lecture - MGT111

Important Mcqs

1. What is the primary goal of Managerial Programme Agenda (MPA)?
- A) To develop a strong private sector
 - B) To enhance public sector performance
 - C) To provide social services to the community
 - D) To increase government control

Answer: B

2. Which of the following is not a component of the MPA?
- A) Monitoring and evaluation
 - B) Public financial management
 - C) Institutional reforms
 - D) Political campaigns

Answer: D

3. What is the purpose of public financial management in the MPA?
- A) To increase government revenue
 - B) To reduce government spending
 - C) To improve budget allocation and management
 - D) To decrease taxes for citizens

Answer: C

4. What is the main objective of institutional reforms in the MPA?
- A) To increase government control
 - B) To strengthen public institutions
 - C) To limit citizen participation in government
 - D) To reduce government bureaucracy

Answer: B

5. Which of the following is a key feature of the MPA approach?
- A) Centralized decision-making
 - B) Top-down implementation
 - C) Bottom-up planning
 - D) Decentralized implementation

Answer: D

6. What is the role of monitoring and evaluation in the MPA?
- A) To track the progress of MPA implementation
 - B) To enforce compliance with MPA policies

- C) To penalize non-compliant agencies
- D) To increase government control

Answer: A

7. What is the main goal of the MPA in terms of service delivery?
- A) To increase access to services
 - B) To decrease the quality of services
 - C) To privatize all services
 - D) To decrease government spending on services

Answer: A

8. Which of the following is not a challenge associated with implementing the MPA?
- A) Resistance to change from government agencies
 - B) Lack of funding for MPA initiatives
 - C) Lack of political will from government leaders
 - D) Lack of citizen participation

Answer: D

9. What is the main benefit of using the MPA approach?
- A) Increased government control over resources
 - B) Improved public sector performance
 - C) Reduced citizen participation in government
 - D) Increased government revenue

Answer: B

10. Which of the following is a key principle of the MPA approach?
- A) Decentralization of power and resources
 - B) Centralization of power and resources
 - C) Limitation of citizen participation in government
 - D) Privatization of all government services

Answer: A