3 Lecture - MGT401

Important Subjective

1. What is a strategic alliance?

A: A strategic alliance is a partnership between two or more companies to pursue a specific project or goal while retaining their independence.

2. What is a joint venture?

A: A joint venture is a partnership between two or more companies to create a new business entity with shared ownership and control.

3. What is a merger?

A: A merger is a combination of two or more companies into a single entity, typically resulting in the disappearance of one or more of the original companies.

4. What is an acquisition?

A: An acquisition is the process of one company acquiring another company, often through the purchase of a majority or all of its shares.

5. What is a horizontal merger?

A: A horizontal merger is a merger between two companies operating in the same industry or sector.

6. What is a vertical merger?

A: A vertical merger is a merger between two companies operating in different stages of the same industry's supply chain.

7. What is a conglomerate merger?

A: A conglomerate merger is a merger between two companies operating in unrelated industries.

8. What are some potential benefits of a strategic alliance?

A: Potential benefits of a strategic alliance include access to new markets, shared expertise and resources, and reduced costs and risks.

9. What are some potential risks of a merger or acquisition?

A: Potential risks of a merger or acquisition include integration challenges, cultural differences, and conflicts of interest.

10. What is a hostile takeover?

A: A hostile takeover is a takeover that is opposed by the target company's management and often involves the acquiring company purchasing shares on the open market without the target company's approval.