

3 Lecture - ISL201

Important Subjective

What is the obedience of God in Islamic theology?

Answer: The obedience of God refers to the act of following the commands of Allah, as revealed in the Quran and the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Why is obedience to God considered the most important obligation of every Muslim?

Answer: Obedience to God is considered the most important obligation of every Muslim because Allah is the ultimate authority and creator of the universe, and obeying Him is the key to leading a righteous and fulfilling life.

What is the link between obedience to God and the belief in tawhid?

Answer: The belief in tawhid, which is the belief in the oneness of Allah, is closely linked to obedience to God, as Muslims believe that obedience to Allah is a natural consequence of the belief in His oneness.

What are some of the commands of Allah that Muslims are required to obey?

Answer: Muslims are required to obey the commands of Allah with respect to prayer, fasting, charity, and pilgrimage, among other things. They are also required to adhere to ethical and moral principles laid out in the Quran.

What are some of the rewards of obedience to God as mentioned in the Quran?

Answer: The Quran describes the rewards of obedience to God in many verses, such as entry into Paradise, freedom from fear and grief, and Allah's mercy and forgiveness.

Why is obedience to God not always easy?

Answer: Muslims may face challenges and difficulties in their journey towards obedience to Allah, but the Quran encourages believers to remain steadfast and strive for Allah with due striving.

What is the role of sincerity and humility in obedience to God?

Answer: Sincerity and humility are essential in obedience to God, as Muslims are encouraged to obey Allah out of love and devotion, rather than fear of punishment.

How does the Prophet Muhammad emphasize the importance of obedience to God?

Answer: The Prophet Muhammad emphasized the importance of obedience to God in many hadiths, such as the one that states "Whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger, will enter Paradise."

Why is obedience to God considered a natural consequence of the belief in His oneness?

Answer: Obedience to God is considered a natural consequence of the belief in His oneness because Muslims believe that Allah is the only true God and that there is no other deity worthy of worship.

What is the ultimate goal of obedience to God for Muslims?

Answer: The ultimate goal of obedience to God for Muslims is to attain His mercy and forgiveness and to enter Paradise.