

4 Lecture - ISL201

Important Mcqs

What is the significance of obedience to the prophets in Islam?

- A) It is not important
- B) It is considered a fundamental part of Islamic belief
- C) It is considered a form of disobedience to Allah
- D) None of the above

Answer: B) It is considered a fundamental part of Islamic belief

Who represents the executive authority in Islam?

- A) The military
- B) Religious scholars
- C) Community members
- D) None of the above

Answer: B) Religious scholars

What does the Quran say about obedience to those in positions of authority?

- A) It is not important
- B) Muslims should only obey those who are of their same social status
- C) Muslims should obey those in positions of authority among them
- D) None of the above

Answer: C) Muslims should obey those in positions of authority among them

Can Muslims disobey those in positions of authority?

- A) Yes, they can disobey them at any time
- B) No, Muslims must always obey those in positions of authority

C) Muslims are required to obey their leaders as long as their commands do not contradict the commands of Allah and the Prophet Muhammad

D) None of the above

Answer: C) Muslims are required to obey their leaders as long as their commands do not contradict the commands of Allah and the Prophet Muhammad

What did the Prophet Muhammad say about obeying those in positions of authority?

A) Muslims should only obey those who are of their same social status

B) Muslims should obey those in positions of authority among them

C) Listen and obey, even if the ruler appointed over you is an Ethiopian slave, for whoever obeys him, obeys me, and whoever disobeys him, disobeys me

D) None of the above

Answer: C) Listen and obey, even if the ruler appointed over you is an Ethiopian slave, for whoever obeys him, obeys me, and whoever disobeys him, disobeys me

What can disobedience to the executive authority lead to?

A) Order and justice within the community

B) Chaos and disorder within the community

C) None of the above

Answer: B) Chaos and disorder within the community

Why is obedience to authority emphasized in Islam?

A) It is not important

B) It maintains order and justice within the community

C) It is necessary for the well-being of the Muslim ummah (community)

D) All of the above

Answer: D) All of the above

Is obedience to authority blind in Islam?

A) Yes, obedience to authority is always blind in Islam

B) No, obedience to authority is based on the understanding that those in positions of authority are responsible for the well-being of the community

C) None of the above

Answer: B) No, obedience to authority is based on the understanding that those in positions of authority are responsible for the well-being of the community

What does the Quran say about obedience to the Prophet Muhammad?

A) It is not important

B) Muslims should only obey those who are of their same social status

C) Muslims should obey the Prophet Muhammad as outlined in the Quran and the Hadiths

D) None of the above

Answer: C) Muslims should obey the Prophet Muhammad as outlined in the Quran and the Hadiths

What is the responsibility of those in positions of authority in Islam?

A) They are responsible for maintaining order and justice within the community

B) They are not responsible for anything

C) They are responsible for causing chaos and disorder within the community

D) None of the above

Answer: A) They are responsible for maintaining order and justice within