

5 Lecture - ISL201

Important Mcqs

What is Ikhlaas in Islam?

- A) Charity
- B) Sincerity
- C) Fasting
- D) Prayer

Answer: B) Sincerity

Why is sincerity important in Islam?

- A) To gain worldly recognition
- B) To please Allah
- C) To become wealthy
- D) To gain social status

Answer: B) To please Allah

What is the opposite of sincerity in Islam?

- A) Showing off
- B) Humility
- C) Gratitude
- D) Generosity

Answer: A) Showing off

What is the ultimate goal of sincerity in Islam?

- A) To gain material wealth
- B) To gain social status

- C) To please Allah
- D) To become famous

Answer: C) To please Allah

Which aspect of sincerity involves performing actions perfectly?

- A) Consciousness of Allah
- B) Pure intention
- C) Avoiding showing off
- D) Perfection of actions

Answer: D) Perfection of actions

What is the sin of showing off in Islam?

- A) Doing an act of worship to gain recognition from others
- B) Doing an act of worship sincerely
- C) Performing an act of worship for the sake of Allah
- D) Avoiding an act of worship to gain recognition from others

Answer: A) Doing an act of worship to gain recognition from others

Is sincerity limited to worship alone in Islam?

- A) Yes
- B) No

Answer: B) No

What is the role of self-reflection in maintaining sincerity?

- A) To become wealthy
- B) To please Allah
- C) To gain social status
- D) To gain recognition from others

Answer: B) To please Allah

Can a person be sincere but still perform actions poorly?

A) Yes

B) No

Answer: A) Yes

What is the relationship between striving for excellence and sincerity in Islam?

A) They are not related

B) Striving for excellence is a key aspect of sincerity

C) Striving for excellence is not important in Islam

D) Sincerity is not important in striving for excellence

Answer: B) Striving for excellence is a key aspect of sincerity.