

11 Lecture - ISL201

Important Mcqs

What is the foundation of the Islamic social system?

- a) Equality and justice
- b) Hierarchy and power
- c) Discrimination and prejudice
- d) Corruption and oppression

Answer: a) Equality and justice

What is the meaning of the term Ummah in Islamic social system?

- a) A community of people sharing a common religion
- b) A group of people belonging to the same ethnicity
- c) A society divided by caste and class
- d) A collection of individuals with different beliefs and values

Answer: a) A community of people sharing a common religion

What is the importance of family in the Islamic social system?

- a) It is the basic unit of society and a source of stability
- b) It is a burden on society and should be abolished
- c) It is only relevant for the wealthy and powerful
- d) It is not considered important in the Islamic social system

Answer: a) It is the basic unit of society and a source of stability

What is the role of zakat in the Islamic social system?

- a) It is a form of charity to help the poor and needy
- b) It is a tax imposed on the wealthy to support the government

- c) It is a means of establishing a hierarchy in society
- d) It is not relevant in the Islamic social system

Answer: a) It is a form of charity to help the poor and needy

What is the Islamic concept of brotherhood?

- a) The belief that all Muslims are equal and should support each other
- b) The belief that only people from the same ethnicity should support each other
- c) The belief that only people from the same social class should support each other
- d) The belief that only people from the same gender should support each other Answer: a) The belief that all Muslims are equal and should support each other

What is the Islamic view on social justice?

- a) It is essential for a just society and a fundamental principle of Islam
- b) It is not relevant in the Islamic social system
- c) It is only relevant for certain groups in society
- d) It is a Western concept that has no place in Islam

Answer: a) It is essential for a just society and a fundamental principle of Islam

What is the Islamic concept of accountability?

- a) Everyone is accountable for their actions in this life and the afterlife
- b) Only certain groups in society are accountable for their actions
- c) Accountability is not relevant in the Islamic social system
- d) Accountability is a Western concept that has no place in Islam

Answer: a) Everyone is accountable for their actions in this life and the afterlife

What is the importance of justice in the Islamic social system?

- a) It is essential for a just society and a fundamental principle of Islam
- b) It is not relevant in the Islamic social system
- c) Justice is only relevant for certain groups in society

d) Justice is a Western concept that has no place in Islam

Answer: a) It is essential for a just society and a fundamental principle of Islam

What is the Islamic concept of human dignity?

a) Every human being is entitled to dignity and respect regardless of their social status

b) Human dignity is only relevant for certain groups in society

c) Human dignity is not relevant in the Islamic social system

d) Human dignity is a Western concept that has no place in Islam Answer: a) Every human being is entitled to dignity and respect regardless of their social status

What is the Islamic view on community service?

a) It is an essential part of the Islamic social system and a means of gaining blessings from God

b) It is not relevant in the Islamic social system