

15 Lecture - ISL201

Important Mcqs

According to Islamic teachings, what is the significance of honesty?

- A) It is a minor sin
- B) It is a major sin
- C) It is not mentioned in Islamic teachings
- D) It is only important in business transactions

Answer: B

Which of the following is not an aspect of honesty in Islam?

- A) Honesty in speech
- B) Honesty in actions
- C) Honesty in intentions
- D) Honesty in dress

Answer: D

What is the penalty for stealing in Islam?

- A) Imprisonment
- B) Fines
- C) Community service
- D) Cutting off the thief's hand

Answer: D

What is the concept of amanah in Islam?

- A) Honesty in business transactions
- B) Trustworthiness and responsibility

- C) Honesty in speech
- D) Generosity and giving to the poor

Answer: B

Which of the following is not an example of honesty in actions?

- A) Returning lost property to its owner
- B) Cheating on a test
- C) Keeping promises and commitments
- D) Giving back extra change to a cashier

Answer: B

Which Prophet is known as "al-Sadiq" in Islamic tradition?

- A) Prophet Adam (AS)
- B) Prophet Ibrahim (AS)
- C) Prophet Isa (AS)
- D) Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

Answer: D

Which Islamic principle encourages Muslims to fulfill their obligations and responsibilities?

- A) Taqwa
- B) Tawakkul
- C) Adl
- D) Ihsan

Answer: C

Which of the following is not considered a form of obligation in Islam?

- A) Paying Zakat
- B) Fasting during Ramadan
- C) Performing Hajj every year

D) Performing Salah (prayer) five times a day

Answer: C

What is the concept of "amanah" in Islam?

A) Betraying someone's trust

B) Fulfilling one's responsibilities and obligations

C) Cheating in business transactions

D) None of the above

Answer: B

Which of the following is not an example of fulfilling an obligation in Islam?

A) Praying five times a day

B) Giving charity to the poor

C) Stealing from others

D) Fasting during the month of Ramadan

Answer: C