

4 Lecture - PAK301

Important Mcqs

Q: Who was Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) A renowned scientist
- b) A social reformer
- c) A politician
- d) A poet

Answer: b) A social reformer

Q: What was the major contribution of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) Advocacy for Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) Promotion of Urdu language
- c) Establishment of the Muhammadan Anglo-Oriental College
- d) Advocacy for the caste system

Answer: c) Establishment of the Muhammadan Anglo-Oriental College

Q: Which book written by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan laid the foundation for the Two-Nation Theory?

- a) "Khutbat-e-Ahmadia"
- b) "Asbab-e-Baghawat-e-Hind"
- c) "Asar-us-Sanadid"
- d) "Hayat-e-Javed"

Answer: b) "Asbab-e-Baghawat-e-Hind"

Q: What was the significance of the Muhammadan Anglo-Oriental College founded by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) It promoted Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) It emphasized the importance of English education

- c) It provided modern education to Muslims in British India
- d) It was a center for promoting Persian language and literature

Answer: c) It provided modern education to Muslims in British India

Q: Which of the following social reforms was advocated by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) Promotion of purdah (veiling of women)
- b) Advocacy for polygamy
- c) Eradication of caste system
- d) Opposition to women's education

Answer: c) Eradication of caste system

Q: What was Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's stance on Hindu-Muslim unity?

- a) Supportive of Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) Opposed to Hindu-Muslim unity
- c) Neutral towards Hindu-Muslim unity
- d) No stance on Hindu-Muslim unity

Answer: a) Supportive of Hindu-Muslim unity

Q: What was Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's relationship with the British rule in India?

- a) Supportive of British rule
- b) Opposed to British rule
- c) Neutral towards British rule
- d) No relationship with British rule

Answer: a) Supportive of British rule

Q: Which language did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan promote for communication among Muslims in British India?

- a) Persian
- b) Arabic

c) English

d) Urdu

Answer: d) Urdu

Q: What was the main goal of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's educational reforms?

a) Preservation of traditional Islamic education

b) Promotion of modern scientific education

c) Emphasis on vocational education

d) Promotion of British education

Answer: b) Promotion of modern scientific education

Q: What is the legacy of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

a) His contributions are forgotten

b) His ideas were not implemented

c) He is remembered as a social reformer and educationalist

d) He is remembered as a poet

Answer: c) He is remembered as a social reformer and educationalist.