4 Lecture - PAK301

Important Mcqs

Q: Who was Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) A renowned scientist
- b) A social reformer
- c) A politician
- d) A poet

Answer: b) A social reformer

Q: What was the major contribution of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) Advocacy for Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) Promotion of Urdu language
- c) Establishment of the Muhammadan Anglo-Oriental College
- d) Advocacy for the caste system

Answer: c) Establishment of the Muhammadan Anglo-Oriental College

Q: Which book written by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan laid the foundation for the Two-Nation Theory?

- a) "Khutbat-e-Ahmadia"
- b) "Asbab-e-Baghawat-e-Hind"
- c) "Asar-us-Sanadid"
- d) "Hayat-e-Javed"

Answer: b) "Asbab-e-Baghawat-e-Hind"

Q: What was the significance of the Muhammadan Anglo-Oriental College founded by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) It promoted Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) It emphasized the importance of English education

- c) It provided modern education to Muslims in British India
- d) It was a center for promoting Persian language and literature

Answer: c) It provided modern education to Muslims in British India

Q: Which of the following social reforms was advocated by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) Promotion of purdah (veiling of women)
- b) Advocacy for polygamy
- c) Eradication of caste system
- d) Opposition to women's education

Answer: c) Eradication of caste system

Q: What was Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's stance on Hindu-Muslim unity?

- a) Supportive of Hindu-Muslim unity
- b) Opposed to Hindu-Muslim unity
- c) Neutral towards Hindu-Muslim unity
- d) No stance on Hindu-Muslim unity

Answer: a) Supportive of Hindu-Muslim unity

Q: What was Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's relationship with the British rule in India?

- a) Supportive of British rule
- b) Opposed to British rule
- c) Neutral towards British rule
- d) No relationship with British rule

Answer: a) Supportive of British rule

Q: Which language did Sir Syed Ahmad Khan promote for communication among Muslims in British India?

- a) Persian
- b) Arabic

- c) English
- d) Urdu

Answer: d) Urdu

Q: What was the main goal of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's educational reforms?

- a) Preservation of traditional Islamic education
- b) Promotion of modern scientific education
- c) Emphasis on vocational education
- d) Promotion of British education

Answer: b) Promotion of modern scientific education

Q: What is the legacy of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan?

- a) His contributions are forgotten
- b) His ideas were not implemented
- c) He is remembered as a social reformer and educationalist
- d) He is remembered as a poet

Answer: c) He is remembered as a social reformer and educationalist.