

8 Lecture - PAK301

Important Subjective

Who delivered the Presidential Address in December 1930?

Answer: Allama Muhammad Iqbal delivered the Presidential Address in December 1930.

What was the occasion of Allama Iqbal's Presidential Address?

Answer: Allama Iqbal's Presidential Address was delivered at the annual session of the All India Muslim League in Allahabad in December 1930.

What were the key challenges faced by Muslims in India, as highlighted by Allama Iqbal in his address?

Answer: Allama Iqbal highlighted the social, economic, and political marginalization of Muslims in India as the key challenges they faced.

What was Allama Iqbal's vision for the future of Muslims in India, as outlined in his address?

Answer: Allama Iqbal envisioned a separate state for Muslims in India where they could live according to their own principles and traditions, and where their rights and interests would be safeguarded.

Which regions did Allama Iqbal suggest to be amalgamated into a single Muslim state in his address?

Answer: Allama Iqbal suggested the regions of Punjab, North-West Frontier Province, Sindh, and Balochistan to be amalgamated into a single Muslim state.

What did Allama Iqbal emphasize regarding education in his address?

Answer: Allama Iqbal emphasized the importance of education for Muslims in India as the key to empowerment and upliftment of their community.

What did Allama Iqbal say about the principle of European democracy in India?

Answer: Allama Iqbal stated that the principle of European democracy cannot be applied to India without recognizing the fact of communal groups, and that Muslims in India have their own distinct culture, civilization, and literature.

What impact did Allama Iqbal's Presidential Address have on the Muslim community in India?

Answer: Allama Iqbal's Presidential Address ignited a sense of political consciousness among Muslims and provided them with a clear direction towards safeguarding their rights and aspirations.

When did Allama Iqbal's vision for a separate state for Muslims in India materialize?

Answer: Allama Iqbal's vision for a separate state for Muslims in India materialized with the creation of Pakistan in 1947.

What is Allama Iqbal's title in relation to Pakistan?

Answer: Allama Iqbal is known as Mufakkir-e-Pakistan (The Thinker of Pakistan) due to his significant role in the political awakening of Muslims in the Indian subcontinent and his vision for a separate state for Muslims, which led to the creation of Pakistan.