

16 Lecture - PAK301

Important Mcqs

Who adopted the Objectives Resolution (1949)?

- a) Constituent Assembly of India
- b) Constituent Assembly of Pakistan
- c) British Parliament
- d) All India Muslim League

Answer: b) Constituent Assembly of Pakistan

When was the Objectives Resolution (1949) adopted?

- a) March 14, 1947
- b) March 12, 1949
- c) August 14, 1947
- d) April 13, 1948

Answer: b) March 12, 1949

What is the main objective of the Objectives Resolution (1949)?

- a) To declare Pakistan an Islamic Republic
- b) To establish a secular state
- c) To proclaim sovereignty belongs to Almighty Allah
- d) To promote socialism in Pakistan

Answer: c) To proclaim sovereignty belongs to Almighty Allah

What does the Objectives Resolution (1949) recognize as the state religion of Pakistan?

- a) Hinduism
- b) Islam
- c) Sikhism
- d) Christianity

Answer: b) Islam

What principles of Islam are emphasized in the Objectives Resolution (1949)?

- a) Democracy and socialism
- b) Equality and social justice
- c) Monarchy and aristocracy
- d) Communism and capitalism

Answer: b) Equality and social justice

Who opposed the adoption of the Objectives Resolution (1949) in the Constituent Assembly?

- a) All India Muslim League
- b) Pakistan People's Party
- c) Indian National Congress
- d) Hindu Mahasabha

Answer: c) Indian National Congress

What is the significance of the Objectives Resolution (1949) in Pakistan's constitutional history?

- a) It establishes Pakistan as an Islamic Republic
- b) It promotes secularism in Pakistan
- c) It emphasizes the principles of democracy and socialism
- d) It lays the foundation for Pakistan's constitutional vision

Answer: d) It lays the foundation for Pakistan's constitutional vision

What is the relationship between Islam and the state in the Objectives Resolution (1949)?

- a) Islam is the only religion allowed in the state
- b) Islam is recognized as the state religion
- c) There is no relationship between Islam and the state
- d) Islam is prohibited in the state

Answer: b) Islam is recognized as the state religion

How has the Objectives Resolution (1949) been used in Pakistan's constitutional jurisprudence?

- a) It has no legal significance
- b) It has been disregarded in Pakistan's constitution
- c) It has been relied upon by the courts for interpreting the constitution
- d) It has been used to promote secularism in Pakistan

Answer: c) It has been relied upon by the courts for interpreting the constitution

What does the Objectives Resolution (1949) emphasize regarding religious, ethnic, and minority communities?

- a) Protection of their rights
- b) Suppression of their rights
- c) Promotion of their rights
- d) Ignoring their rights

Answer: a) Protection of their rights