16 Lecture - PAK301

Important Mcqs

Who adopted the Objectives Resolution (1949)?

- a) Constituent Assembly of India
- b) Constituent Assembly of Pakistan
- c) British Parliament
- d) All India Muslim League

Answer: b) Constituent Assembly of Pakistan

When was the Objectives Resolution (1949) adopted?

- a) March 14, 1947
- b) March 12, 1949
- c) August 14, 1947
- d) April 13, 1948

Answer: b) March 12, 1949

What is the main objective of the Objectives Resolution (1949)?

- a) To declare Pakistan an Islamic Republic
- b) To establish a secular state
- c) To proclaim sovereignty belongs to Almighty Allah
- d) To promote socialism in Pakistan

Answer: c) To proclaim sovereignty belongs to Almighty Allah

What does the Objectives Resolution (1949) recognize as the state religion of Pakistan?
a) Hinduism
b) Islam
c) Sikhism
d) Christianity Answer: b) Islam
What principles of Islam are emphasized in the Objectives Resolution (1949)?
a) Democracy and socialism
b) Equality and social justice
c) Monarchy and aristocracy
d) Communism and capitalism Answer: b) Equality and social justice Who opposed the adoption of the Objectives Resolution (1949) in the Constituent Assembly?
a) All India Muslim League
b) Pakistan People's Party
c) Indian National Congress
d) Hindu Mahasabha Answer: c) Indian National Congress
What is the significance of the Objectives Resolution (1949) in Pakistan's constitutional history?
a) It establishes Pakistan as an Islamic Republic
b) It promotes secularism in Pakistan
c) It emphasizes the principles of democracy and socialism
d) It lays the foundation for Pakistan's constitutional vision

Answer: d) It lays the foundation for Pakistan's constitutional vision

What is the relationship between Islam and the state in the Objectives Resolution (1949)?

- a) Islam is the only religion allowed in the state
- b) Islam is recognized as the state religion
- c) There is no relationship between Islam and the state
- d) Islam is prohibited in the state

Answer: b) Islam is recognized as the state religion

How has the Objectives Resolution (1949) been used in Pakistan's constitutional jurisprudence?

- a) It has no legal significance
- b) It has been disregarded in Pakistan's constitution
- c) It has been relied upon by the courts for interpreting the constitution
- d) It has been used to promote secularism in Pakistan

Answer: c) It has been relied upon by the courts for interpreting the constitution

What does the Objectives Resolution (1949) emphasize regarding religious, ethnic, and minority communities?

- a) Protection of their rights
- b) Suppression of their rights
- c) Promotion of their rights
- d) Ignoring their rights

Answer: a) Protection of their rights