8 Lecture - CS101

Important Subjective

1.	Who invented the Difference Engine? Answer: Charles Babbage.
2.	What was the first machine that could be programmed to perform different tasks? Answer: The Analytical Engine.
3.	What was the punch card machine used for? Answer: Processing data for the 1890 U.S. census, as well as other applications such as accounting and inventory management.
4.	What was the Colossus machine used for? Answer: Cracking German codes during World War II.
5.	What was the first commercial computer? Answer: The UNIVAC.
6.	What was the first successful personal computer for home use? Answer: The Apple II.
7.	Who developed the first web browser? Answer: Tim Berners-Lee.
8.	What was the first website? Answer: A website created by Tim Berners-Lee in 1991.

9. What was the dominant operating system for personal computers?

Answer: Windows, developed by Microsoft.

10. What was the first smartphone?Answer: The iPhone, was introduced by Apple in 2007.