8 Lecture - CS101

Important Subjective

| 1. | Who invented the Difference Engine? Answer: Charles Babbage. |
|----|--|
| 2. | What was the first machine that could be programmed to perform different tasks? Answer: The Analytical Engine. |
| 3. | What was the punch card machine used for? Answer: Processing data for the 1890 U.S. census, as well as other applications such as accounting and inventory management. |
| 4. | What was the Colossus machine used for? Answer: Cracking German codes during World War II. |
| 5. | What was the first commercial computer? Answer: The UNIVAC. |
| 6. | What was the first successful personal computer for home use? Answer: The Apple II. |
| 7. | Who developed the first web browser? Answer: Tim Berners-Lee. |
| 8. | What was the first website? Answer: A website created by Tim Berners-Lee in 1991. |
| 9. | What was the dominant operating system for personal computers? |

Answer: Windows, developed by Microsoft.

10. What was the first smartphone?Answer: The iPhone, was introduced by Apple in 2007.